Mrs. Thomas, in announcing the meeting, said that the work of the Twin Falls Chapter is built around conservation of youth, community service and civic interests and education and natural resources.

Entertainment for the luncheon will feature several voice solos by Velma Guyer, who is the current Miss Twin Falls and who is a student at the College of Southern Idaho. She will be accompanied by Mrs. David Mead.

Reagan Ready For Tour Of Nation

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Ronald Reagan is getting ready for his first nationwide political tour as a full-fledged hawk on Vietnam and closer than ever to campaigning actively for the Republican presidential nomination.

Less than three weeks before his speechmaking trip through Illinois, South Carolina and Wisconsin, Reagan made his toughest statement so far on the war, asking for a sharp escalation.

"I don't think the full technological power of the United States is being used," Reagan told a news conference Tuesday.

He said he didn't think nuclear weapons are needed to win but insisted "the enemy should be frightened that we might" use them.

The eagerness with which the governor tackled questions on Vietnam increased speculation that he might actively seek the nomination. Officially, he insists he's only interested in being California's favorite son.

Asked if Reagan would discuss Vietnam on the three-state trip starting Sept. 29, his communications director, Lyn Nofziger, said he would "mention it."

The tour billed in part as a fund-raiser for GOP candidates, will provide the first grassroots reaction in oil states to the former actor who led California Republicans to victory last year with an almost million-vote victory over Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Three doctors who examined Pope Paul VI today said an operation might be necessary to cure his urinary ailment.

Captives Of The Bully Boys

WASHINGTON — There is a dollop of conflict in the knowledge that we won't have to take the new National Convention on New Politics seriously. Any high school government state could give those jokers ballot-stuffing rights and still bury them.

If the New Politicians do run a candidate for President, it will be a sordid joke on the average Negro because no free citizen in his right mind would cast his ballot for a candidate nominated by a gang of kids playing with their fathers' hats. It is significant that even Martin Luther King, who will run for almost anything to get his name in the papers, is uninterested in that particular honor. He is, instead, captives of the Black Power bully boys of the Rap Brown-Floyd McElissick persuasion, who have no goal but the destruction of the American society. How on earth do they expect to woo white help when they tell the white man they're going to bury him? And without white help, and the tolerance if the support the average Negro, the New Politicians are just funny people, in a nasty sort of way.

No organization worthy of consideration by the public can bow to a lunatic minority, as the New Politicians did, and stay respectable. Accepting without reservations 13 demands for militant resolutions by the convention's Black Caucus kept the Negroes from walking out, but it revealed the utter frivolousness of the movement. It is a "revolutionary" movement, there seems to be a deep yearning for a good time among the New Politicians.

They are not even practical, cynical politicians. They bought a resolution denouncing the "imperialistic Zionist war" apparently without thinking about the financial suicide they were committing. Down the years, Jews and Jewish organizations have given liberally of their time and money to the Negro's cause, but they can hardly be expected to lay their hands on this new chopping block.

"This is not to imply anti-Semitism," said the resolution. The New Politicians must think the American voter is a complete idiot. In accepting the Zionist resolution, they bought intact the package prepared by the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), which has accused Israel of the Arabs and has named Jewish storekeepers as major "enemies" of the Negro.

Such savage tomfoolery strikes a bizarre note from a movement which over the past few years has reaped financial gain by using the names of Andrew Goodman and Michael Schwerner, both Jews, as martyrs to the cause. The New Politicians would like to forget that Goodman and Schwerner were murdered in 1964 while working for SNCC.

Meanwhile, I suggest that we can also forget the Rev. James E. Cropper, the Catholic priest who leads all those demonstrations in Milwaukee. Cropper has been intensifying his inviting Rap Brown to join the Milwaukee fun, a curious gesture by a presumed man of God to a character who urges Negroes to get guns and kill their white enemies.

Cropper, like so many clerics of the era, apparently has joined the extremists in an attempt to compensate for the neglect of all churches of the Negro's cause during most of the 20th century. I hope he has a rationale worked out for the day when the killing starts.

Gateway To Nowhere

Plans for West Coast Airlines to merge with two other carriers — Bonanza and Pacific Air — is being received with mixed emotions in Twin Falls and Magic Valley.

On the one hand the merger, if approved, will mean better connecting schedules from this area to other parts of the nation. But, on the other hand, it will mean that when airlines and citizens of the area ask for favors they will find they are dealing with a major and not a feeder unit. And major airlines do not think the same as do the feeders.

Officials of the three lines, in a press release, talk of the advantages of the long-haul, high-density route development program now in the planning stage. This is the real reason for the merger.

The three airlines now serve a total of 96 communities in eight western states and Canada. West Coast has headquarters in Seattle, Pacific Air in San Francisco and Bonanza in Phoenix. Pacific covers routes from the Mexican border north to Portland and from San Francisco east to Reno and Las Vegas. West Coast blankets the northwest and Bonanza the southwest.

At the present time the combined fleet of the three lines would add up to three Boeing 727's, seven Douglas DC-9's, 32 F-27's, eight DC-3's and four Piper Navajos. On order would be six Boeing 737's and five series 30 DC-9's, all to be delivered in 1967, 1968 and 1969.

The new merger would give one-line service to state capitals of Boise, Olympia, Phoenix, Sacramento, Salt Lake City and the provincial capital, Calgary.

Service to famed resorts would include Glacier National Park, Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, Palm Springs and, of course, Sun Valley in Idaho. The airlines would be a big one. The three carriers hauled 2,224,000 passengers in 1966. This is the fact that really concerns many Magic Valley residents. Would the airline be too big to adequately service this area?

It sounds like double talk, but this could well be true. In expanding there is little doubt that officers of the three lines are looking to the big markets. That's where the money — and the passengers — can be found.

So where does this leave the Magic Valley? Those who are interested in the future of the valley had better make haste in finding out what will come of it.

For all purposes, Twin Falls could end up in the back seat all around. No longer, for instance, can this community be considered the "gateway" to Sun Valley. The gateway is now Hailey.

So before the community becomes the gateway to nowhere, city and county officials had better get their heads together, get West Coast officials in a corner, and come up with a commitment of some sort that will see the area getting better service — and possibly jet service — out of the merger.

Plants Cough, Too

Not only does air pollution damage human lungs, but now it is estimated it causes a half-billion dollars a year in damage to farm crops in the U.S.

The losses would be greater, it is estimated, if the plants were being selectively bred so as to propagate the varieties with the most resistance to injury from ozone and other pollutants.

That's fine, but what about the nutritional values of those selectively bred varieties? Is there any research to disclose whether a plant resistant to polluted air is either better or worse for human consumption? Will some future Popeye's pollution-resistant spinach have to be artificially irradiated with vitamins?

This is not an isolated problem on the leeward side of big cities with smoke problems. The University of Delaware reports ozone damage to crops all the way down the Delaware Peninsula into Virginia, and California reports damage to timber in the high Sierras from the smog of coastal cities.

The long-range solution must be to clear up the air, not to make permanent changes in plant evolution which may or may not be desirable.

A MOST POTENT LOBBY

The President and Congress last week heard for the first time from the Urban Coalition. They will hear from it again and eventually they will listen. For as David Mervin reported, the Urban Coalition is the nation's most powerful lobby, and its business is the most urgent business in America: the revitalization of its cities and their people.

The coalition was represented in Washington by 120 persons, each one a "big name" in the city. They were the Mayors of the country's largest cities, the heads of some of its wealthiest corporations, some of its leading universities, influential publishers, mass union officers and distinguished professionals. Indeed it is hard to call to mind anything quite like this delegation.

Accustomed as they are to standard lobbyist tactics, the politicians may have been tempted to regard this as a one-shot demonstration, too all-encompassing for continuity. After all, Henry Ford and Walter Reuther were among the delegates. So was the board chairman of General Electric and the secretary of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. For these diversities do not preclude a common interest in high priority for urban needs.

Much of what they had to say had been said before. Many of the suggestions for opening up 1,000,000 new jobs. Equal attention will be due to recommendations to be made by the coalition's newly formed task force on public employment, private employment, educational disparities, equal housing opportunities and economic investment and development. These will come from men who know what they are talking about and who are not in it for the money.

The Urban Coalition exists because urban ills are felt in board rooms as well as in slums. It is unlikely to tolerate predential lip service and congressional indifference. And it is likely to persist because it has learned that self-interest carried too far becomes self-destruction. — St. Louis Dispatch

PREMIERE JUDGMENT

Gov. Tom McCall has been tapped, along with other notable Americans, to go to South Vietnam to serve President Johnson's official observers of the forthcoming election in that unhappy country.

But as the ballot of the name of Mr. Gen. Douglas Van Mien, who once seized power in South Vietnam through a military coup, served briefly as chief of state, and has been in exile since losing the office in the same manner. Perhaps he should be on the ballot, although it would appear there already are considerably more than a presidential number of candidates. In any case, the restoration to power by popular vote of "Big Minh" a military leader, a Buddhist who benefited politically from the overthrow and murder of Catholic President Ngo Dinh Diem, hardly could be considered a reinforcement of the democratic principle in South Vietnam.

ART BUCHWALD

Uncle John's Cabin

CHICAGO — The New Left just held a meeting in Chicago and set back radicalism by 20 years. The original idea of the meeting was for it to help unite the left-wing organizations under one banner and start a third party to defeat President Johnson in 1968.

But before anyone realized what was happening, a minority of militant black power delegates took over the conference, and the majority who were delegates found themselves giving in to every demand made of them by the likes of Rap Brown, Floyd McKissick and James Foreman.

The black power people told the white delegates to get in to every issue the Negro's way, "or they could go to hell." Instead of fighting back, the white delegates caved in and adopted every black power proposal from the boycotting of General Motors to the boycotting of Israel for fighting a war against the Arabs in the Middle East.

This seems to be a reverse form of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and many of the white radicals are now being called "Uncle John's" because of their kowtowing to the militant Negro leaders.

"This is a pitiful sight to see," "Honk," the black man says, "do you know who the worst enemies of the black people are?"

"We are, boss, the white liberals."

"And do you know why?" "Oh, I wish I did. I wish I did."

"Of course you're always trying to understand us. Can't you get it through your dumb head that we don't want to be understood?"

"You've got to give us this. That's all we ask for. 'It's too late, boy. The only thing we can do with you now is to burn down your house.'"

"Of course you do. I'm sorry for getting out of line. I've got my reputation to think of."

"Well, we really don't give a damn one way or the other, but if you want to get involved you can support our program."

the abolition of the Supreme Court and the overthrow of the U.S. government.

"There's nothing in there I couldn't support."

"But let's get something straight, boy. This is our show. We don't want you stealing it away from us."

"I wouldn't do that, sir. Say, if you won't have lunch with me, would you consider breakfast?"

"It's too risky, boy. I like you personally, but I'm seen with you, I'd never be able to explain it to my people. You understand, don't you?"

"I do, do."

"It's a matter of fact. I shouldn't even be talking to you."

"Please don't reject me. The only thing I can take is rejection."

"Get off your knees, boy. You're embarrassing me."

"I've still got this other shoe to do."

"Well, hurry up and finish the shoe. I've got to go back into the meeting."

Left wingers are fond of saying that under capitalism a few people get most of the rewards, exploiting everyone else in the process.

It is a lie that needs to be exposed.

Take the United States today. I realize that you could hardly call this an altogether capitalist country — we have a mixed economy — part capitalism, part socialism.

But the myth about a few people exploiting the rest of the population is absolutely false. The latest tax figures show why. The simple and painful fact is that rather than a few exploiting most it is just the other way around. The majority of taxpayers in the country are, in effect, exploiting a distinct minority.

Some 16 percent of our taxpayers have income in the comfortable range between $10,000 to $15,000 a year. They pay no income tax. The rest of our society. This 16 percent, however, pays an overwhelming 68 percent of all individual income taxes.

Now who is exploiting whom? The major burdens of supporting the socialistic schemes of Washington bureaucrats, providing the money with which they buy the loyalty of the very people whom the bureaucrats most studiously ignore, who need for creative and productive freedom they desire has those interests are forgotten in government programs.

These productive people are the ones being exploited. They are, beyond any doubt, the forgotten men of today. The only thing they are responsible for when it comes time to raid their pockets.

Beyond that, of course, the 646 Americans who report an income of more than a million dollars during the past year are the most affluent future in the country.

Their incomes are primarily derived from the development of creative and productive millions of other Americans' ideas. When a man gets rich by providing jobs and work for thousands of other men he and they are trading honest values. That is what capitalism is all about.

In Great Britain during the Industrial Revolution and in this country during the heyday of capitalism this lesson was even more obvious. To be sure, a few capitalists did get rich while the rest of us were getting work, opportunity and the assurance of the most affluent future in the history of the world. What could be a better trade?

The greatest form of exploitation being carried out in the world today is the exploitation of creative and productive individuals by socialist bureaucrats — including those in our own country.

It is long past due that these exploited Americans start making a noise in their own self-defense.

The Challenge

WASHINGTON (AP) — The man who challenges his boss firmly and openly over the way the boss is running the risk of getting fired.

Yet the Joint Chiefs of Staff can speak out against their legally established superiors' policy over the limited bombing of North Vietnam with little fear anybody will get a pink slip.

How so?

The key is the forum the generals and admirals use in order to be blunt, even critical, about national policy.

In the case of the air war, the chiefs' platform was the Senate defense preparedness subcommittee which has been examining civilian limitations on the fighting.

The chiefs' testimony in closed session led Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., to conclude "a clear and direct conflict" existed between them and Defense Secretary Robert S.

McNamara maintains his differences with the military are "very, very narrow" and deal primarily with operating details, not public statements or good ideas as to the tenor.

On the surface, Gen. John P. McConnell, Air Force chief of staff, was the most outspoken. He stated, in effect, that the bombing has been less than the additional 500,000 U.S. troops and $75 billion in additional spending for Southeast Asia.

Conflicts McNamara has said repeatedly there is no way to accurately assess the value of the bombing.

McNamara's own chief of staff, Gen. Harold G. Johnson, emerged from a subcommittee session to say in answer to a question that the military considers Halphong port a valuable facility for the North Vietnamese.

"I've still got this other shoe to do."

offic commander, in chief, said pressure should be increased — "the best way to persuade the military element in the White House to stop the aggression is to make the consequences of continuing the aggression as painful as possible."

Conflict: McNamara says he sees no evidence "that would lead to a belief that a selective bombing campaign would change the resolve of the military leadership."

How can such seemingly upstart performances be tolerated by a firm-handed defense chief and a President often depicted as sensitive to criticism?

First, the disagreements aren't as deep and dramatic as might appear — and furthermore they aren't new.

Second, the chiefs have been making their case for broadened bombing in accepted, semi-official channels.

The debate over the value of hitting certain targets — Halphong among them — began almost with the inception of the bombing against the North in 1965. Even then the chiefs wanted to neutralize the port by bombardment or mining.

Chattanooga Raiders Save Famous Train

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Chattanooga raiders have succeeded, at least for a time, in saving their famous "choo-choo" by repeating a raid this was a hanging offense the first time it was tried.

Federal guerrillas were hanged during the Civil War for trying to abandon with the locomotive "General" but the Chattanooga mayor, City Commission and a host of police-policemen had better luck Tuesday in blocking the engine's return to Georgia.

A court hearing today will determine the permanence of their victory. Chancellor Ray Brock will consider a motion by the Louisville & Nashville Railroad asking him to rescind his injunction which sidetracked the contested engine.

The raiding party, armed with Brock's order, headed off the General just as it was being moved through the L&N yards to a new home at Kennesaw, Ga.

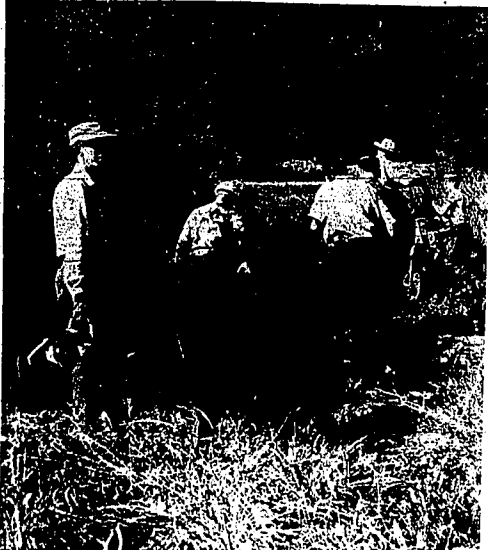

Georgia officials exploded in rage. Kennesaw Mayor James Adams hurried north, declaring he would get "that damned train." Chattanooga was just as angry.

The General appears on the official seal of Chattanooga, and the "choo-choo" claim is the original "Chattanooga Choo-choo." After retirement in 1890, the engine was ensnared in the city's Union Station.

In the Great Locomotive Chase of 1862, the General was seized at Kennesaw, then called Big Shanty, and recaptured at Ringgold, Ga., a Chattanooga suburb.

The L&N took the General from its shrine six years ago and refurbished it for Civil War centennial festivities. Now the railroad has decided to give the engine to the state of Georgia for new enrichment at Kennesaw.

Kennesaw claims the engine since it was stolen from there 105 years ago, and the L&N agreed. But Chattanooga says returning the General to Georgia after all these years would be about like giving America back to the Indians because of a

Twin Falls Trail Machine Club Helps Improve Trail In Sawtooth Forest

Members of the Twin Falls Trail Machine Club recently formed a work party and donated labor to improve the trail along the Third Fork of Rock Creek in the Sawtooth National Forest, Minidoka Division.

They donated time, tools and equipment to improve the trail to make it satisfactory for trail machine travel. Forest Service spokesmen said the efforts of the club also will make the trail better for foot and horseback travel.

The club is working closely with the Sawtooth National Forest to designate other trails for trail machine paths, particularly in the White Cloud Mountains.

Forest Service officials note that the sport is growing by leaps and bounds and they are working to designate trails for this type of outdoor activity. Many trails into forest areas are closed to any type of vehicular traffic. Besides its activities in improving trails, the club also gathers litter from forest trails, depositing it for pickup by Forest Service personnel.

Soviets Launch Another Satellite

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today launched its second unmanned Cosmos satellite in three days but did not specify its mission.

The new Cosmos was hurled into a cigar-shaped orbit, an official announcement said, and is whirling around the globe every 102.5 minutes at an inclination of 81.9 degrees to the equator. It said the satellite was designed to carry out "further space research."

Mail Lost

PITTSBURGH (AP)—In the 200 miles between here and Harrisburg lie rugged mountains, farms, villages and 29 mail sacks.

U.S. mail officials said Tuesday the sacks, containing first-class mail, fell through an open door of an airplane Friday.

They said nothing was turned up in a search around the airports in the two cities, and indicated helicopters may be used to search the entire distance.

The 30-inch nylon bags are green and will blend with the foliage.

The pilot of the mail-laden plane said he and his copilot felt a draft in the plane, then discovered a door open and the bags missing.

H. Rap Brown Will Fight Extradition

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—An attorney for H. Rap Brown says the Black Power advocate will fight extradition to Maryland where he faces two felony charges in connection with Negro rioting this summer.

Brown, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, is to appear today in Alexandria Municipal Court to be served with extradition papers signed Aug. 23 by Virginia Gov. Miles E. Godwin Jr.

Brown faces separate charges of inciting persons to riot and arson growing out of a July 23 riot in Cambridge, Md., in which a school and several other buildings were burned. The rioting began after Brown addressed a large crowd of Negroes.

Phillip J. Hirschkopf of Alexandria, a lawyer representing Brown, said his client intends to oppose extradition on grounds he was arrested illegally and can't get a fair trial in Maryland.

Brown, 23, was arrested in Alexandria several days after the Cambridge uprising on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid protection. He was released on $10,000 bond and the federal charge later was dropped.

Report On Vietnam Given Burley Meet

BURLEY — H. K. (Curly) Kleinkopf, Burley restaurant owner, who recently returned from Vietnam, spoke to a capacity audience Monday night during the Chamber of Commerce luncheon at Bryan's Cafe.

Mr. Kleinkopf served in Vietnam for 1 1/2 years as a civilian with the Morrison-Knudsen Construction Co. The project was a joint venture with three other large construction firms.

The construction companies were building boat docks, roads, highways, and airfields. There were 143 different construction projects the joint companies were involved in, Kleinkopf stated.

"To give you an idea of how much money is being spent in Vietnam, four big private companies were spending money at the rate of $20 million a day during the first quarter last year," he said.

"This is not connected with the bigger outlay by our government," he added.

"We just can't buy peace. We have tried to buy peace for more than 30 years all over the world with no success. Vietnam is no different than other countries," he stated.

"In Vietnam we have set up schools to teach the Vietnamese a better way of life and as soon as they learn enough English to write and some of the American methods, they repay us by writing and hanging out a sign reading 'Yanks Go Home!'"

"The Vietnamese have been fighting for 4,000 years and the recent election of a new leader in my opinion can't change the living and thinking habits of the people which have been established too long to change."

"I can't see anything in Vietnam for the United States except the same thing that happened to us in Korea. There is just no way of gaining a military victory," he declared.

Yes, if Gen. Westmoreland were given a free hand to conduct the war as he saw fit the American forces now over there with replacements could win a military victory within 90 days.

But Gen. Westmoreland's hands are tied for he is told what to bomb and where by the Vietnamese, the speaker said.

During a question period it was brought out by the speaker that Vietnam has been Buddhist in religion for centuries but in the past years the Catholic religion has given a great deal to the country in the form of schools and hospitals. About 40 per cent of the Buddhists are now Catholic, he said.

In answering a question about the school systems in Vietnam, Mr. Kleinkopf stated that most of the established schools were directed by the French. The Peace Corps now is setting up and directing schools which are accepted by the Vietnamese.

Mrs. Kleinkopf was also a guest of the chamber.

It was announced that Lloyd Douglas, manager for Stoye building.

White House Country Fair Is Success

WASHINGTON (AP) — Every one had fun at the White House Country Fair.

The President brought his dog, smiled and shook hands, and was followed by kids like the Pied Piper.

The First Lady rode side-saddle on a palomino carousel horse, paroled 42 feet high on a ferris wheel and handed out autographs.

Lynda Bird Johnson and her fiancé, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, kissed atop the ferris wheel.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey drove a 1922 Ford around the White House south driveway.

In just two hours, about 600 youngsters aged 5 to 12 children and grandchildren of top Washington officials — gobbled up several hundred hot dogs, 500 boxes of popcorn, 320 frozen custards, 700 pink and purple cones of cotton candy, 60 jelly apples and gallons of soft drinks.

They rode in six antique cars and antique planes around the driveways and rode eight ponies around the petunia and geranium-lined fountain.

The White House South Lawn took on the atmosphere of a carnival midway, with striped tents, fortune tellers, games of skill, bingo, sack races and dance contests.

White House staff, wives of officials and bus-bus pressed into service to cater to the crowd wore carnival style red and white striped vests and red straw hats.

LONG-HAIRED hippie sits on a log shrouded bench in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. The cold damp climate during July and August discouraged many of the hippies from remaining. City officials and resident hippies agree that about as many of the cultists moved out as arrived each week. With the end of summer and the start of school terms, the hippie population has dropped. Doctors claim many hippies suffer from disease. (AP wirephoto)

Carefree Life Of Hippie Is Not Healthy

By WILLIAM C. HARRISON

AP Science Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —

Whatever the hippie life is not healthy, it is not

ates a free medical clinic in the Haight-Ashbury district, said today that upper respiratory infection is almost universal among the sandals and "and there's an awful lot of hepatitis and venereal disease."

Smith, who also heads the drug abuse screening unit at the San Francisco General Hospital and teaches at the University of California Medical Center, also talked about the drug use incidence.

"Here the figure is 100 percent," he said. "I haven't seen a kid in the clinic who hasn't used drugs, and most are using them right now."

We are seeing an awful lot of Meth (methamphetamine, a stimulant) problems — now," he continued, noting the clinic has been seeing 10 to 20 Meth cases daily. "Mostly young kids who are hallucinating, very paranoid and suffering from malnutrition and sleep deprivation."

Of 20 Meth patients, the physician estimates that five are suffering from toxic psychosis, so disturbed that they should commit themselves to a mental hospital for long-term therapy, "but usually don't."

Part of the upper respiratory infection problems undoubtedly result from San Francisco's chilly summer weather and the fog, which also must have contributed towards keeping the hippie population down.

The cold climate (in Haight-Ashbury) particularly during July and August, discourage the hippies from remaining," says

Police Chief Thomas Cahill who had worried publicly over a prediction that some 100,000 hippies would invade the city for a "summer of love."

Both the chief and Mayor John F. Shelley appealed publicly to parents to keep their kids home and the Board of Supervisors passed a resolution yanking the welcome mat and pointing out San Francisco doesn't have the facilities for such an influx.

Despite city protests, some hippies did sleep in Golden Gate Park, as well as in the streets and in crowded communal pads.

The newly arrived hippie who crawled behind a clump of the doddered bushes for some postmidnight shi-eye learned that the park's hidden sprinkler system was turned on at day-break.

Wet and cold, he would head for a gasoline station across the street from the park and find the restroom door locked.

Just how many hippies came and how many are here now may never be known since they wander and are not easily counted. However, city officials and resident hippies agree that about as many have moved out as arrived each week during the summer.

With schools reopening, the population is dropping now.

Nixon Claims U.S. Power Is Failing

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon says the influence of the United States in the world is failing because other nations no longer believe what President Johnson's spokesmen say.

"Increasingly," he says, "we find signs of a paradox of American power: Never has a nation possessed such power as the United States now commands, and never has a nation sought to use its power to nobler purposes—but seldom has a nation been so mistrusted in its purposes or so frustrated in its efforts."

"The gap is widening between what our spokesmen say and what others believe."

Nixon, former vice president and an unannounced candidate for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, made the declarations in a speech Tuesday night at a dinner meeting of the National Industrial Conference Board.

In part, Nixon discussed impressions he gathered during trips this year to more than 30 countries in Europe, Asia, Africa and Latin America.

He said that Washington, instead of "sanctimonious sermonizing" about the morality of U.S. foreign policy, should stress that all that is done is done in the primary national interest.

"The plain fact of the matter is that we are fighting in Vietnam for the same reason we fought in World War I and World War II and Korea: Because our vital national interest is at stake," he said.

Nixon never mentioned Johnson by name.

Unlike Gov. George Romney of Michigan, who has said he was "brainwashed" during a visit to Vietnam, Nixon said he had no complaint about the briefings he received during his nine visits there.

Help Sales

NEW YORK (AP) — Can a miniskirted miss help maximize the sale of New York State lottery tickets?

Apparently a private publicity company thinks they can because the firm has hired a number of pretty girls for the purpose.

The campaign is to get under way at City Hall Thursday with a mayoral proclamation declaring the day Official Lottery Day.

Then the girls will hop into convertibles and tour parts of the city extolling the benefits of the lottery.

Revenues from the lottery have not come up to expectations. The money is used to aid education.

Southern Idaho Credit Unit Elects Officers At Meeting

New officers of Region Two, paid a surprise call to the conference Sunday, urged those attending to write to him with opinions concerning state problems so that he could act within the best interest of Idaho's citizens.

About 80 delegates attended the three-day affair which concluded Sunday. Workshops, speeches, Credit Women's International activities and other functions were held during the event. Next year's conference will be in October, 1968, at Boise.

Sen. Don Loveland, R-Cassia, told the credit delegates that some of the surplus in the state treasury would have to be used to pay for forest fire expense, "although the full impact of the fires is not known."

When friends drop in, serve milk with snacks

"I reckon you know that milk is nature's vitality drink, don't you? Sure you do. And I reckon you know that milk helps balance your meals and that you need balanced meals and proper rest and exercise to keep physically fit. But maybe you don't know what milk does for snacks. Milk has a cool, clean taste that goes great with snackin' foods and gives you extra vitality, too. So when you take a break, make it a real break. Reach, pardner, for milk with all your snacks."

Jolley Family Reunion Held

RILEY—The Henry Jolley family reunion was held recently at Salmon Park, Burley, with 195 family members attending.

Roy Jolley, president, conducted the meeting and Ferri Jolley gave a report from B. M. Jolley, Orem, Utah, who was unable to attend. He reported that the pictures that had been sent to B. M. Jolley for use in the book could now be picked up and that the 1967 Jolley Family Organization News could be picked up for a small donation.

Pictures were taken and given to Mrs. Mary (Mame) Jolley, eldest woman attending; George Huber, eldest man; Mr. and Mrs. George Huber, couple married the longest; Mr. and Mrs. Arden Kovle, shortest time married; Michelle Mason, youngest baby; and Beth Carey and Doris Clausen, daughters of the late Nephi Jolley, traveled the farthest.

Participating in the program were Bob Squires, Shanna Koyle, Debra Koyle and Ferri Jolley.

Mistresses Are Now Acceptable In French Life

PARIS (AP)—Mistresses have been and are now socially acceptable in France.

The influence of Madame de Gaulle, often referred to as a prudish Mrs. Grundy, has done little to change that peculiarly French phenomenon.

Still, a certain amount of discretion is always exercised. A man in public life, for instance, would rarely, if ever, trot out his mistress on a public or official occasion. But he would not be attracted because he had a mistress," explains one Frenchman.

Even the French wife still puts up with "other women" after all, the wife still commands more prestige than the mistress, and she's not about to trade places.

Besides, the wife has more legal freedoms, more job opportunities, more independence than ever before. And if that isn't enough to keep her happy, she can always take a lover—if her husband doesn't find out.

That may be the French-farce way life is for the very rich. But having more than one woman to keep does not fit into the finances of most ordinary Frenchmen. As a consequence, middle-class men are monogamous men, with just a few flirtations on the side.

Whatever France is doing, it must be doing something right. It is one of the few countries where the divorce rate is declining. In 1945 the rate was 12.7 per cent. Two years ago the figure was estimated at 8.9 per cent, much less than Britain, and much, much, less than the U.S.

Major causes or reasons admitted by the courts are "grave insult," a general term which includes refusal of a man even to go to bed with his wife; condemnation of husband or wife to a punishment involving loss of civil rights; and adultery.

Oddly, in this country famous for its amours, adultery is very difficult to prove, and it is seldom used in a divorce case.

TOO-SENIOR CITIZEN

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—In filling out an application form for a writer's conference, Mrs. A. L. Rogers came to a blank which asked: "Age, if you don't mind telling it." Mrs. Rogers penned "65" and added "I don't mind telling it. I just mind being it."

Bigger Bottles

NEW YORK (AP)—The American housewife is becoming partial to larger glass bottles and jars, according to a recent report from the Glass Containers Manufacturers Institute.

Quart milk bottles used to be standard; today, two-quart and gallon bottles are featured in supermarkets. Glass containers for applesauce, salad dressing and peanut butter are also getting larger.

The reasons are both economic and sociological. Larger families make it economical to buy household products in bigger containers. And large bottles mean fewer trips to the supermarket.

SHOSHONE—Invitations to various functions of other lodges were received at Lincoln Chapter 240-42-Order of Eastern Star meeting this week.

Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
 Dear Abby: I am a girl in my early twenties who works in an office with several older women. The other women carry their lunches and eat them at their desks. I prefer to go out to lunch every day to get away from the office for a change of scenery. I don't do anything special. I just walk around for the exercise and window shop. My problem is that several of the women in the office ask me to stop at the department store, which is just around the corner, or the drug store, next door, to pick up something for them. It's no trouble for me, and I enjoy doing these errands.

The next regular meeting is Oct. 6, where preparations will be made for the rummage sale to be held Oct. 7 at the old Parish House. Mrs. William Haug is chairman of the rummage sale. Mrs. Ben Walker will assist Mrs. Haug with hosting the meeting.

The group sponsored a no-host luncheon in honor of Mrs. Reginald Tulk, New York City, mother of Rev. John Tulk.

Saddle, Riding Equipment Stolen

A hand-tooled saddle, bridles and other riding equipment representing a total value of more than $550 were reported stolen Monday night from the Roy Ze-Barth home east of Twin Falls.

Twin Falls County sheriff's officers said the lock on the tool room had been broken and the equipment was reported missing early Tuesday morning.

The Ze-Barth family was away from home between 8 p.m. and 10:30 p.m. Monday and it is believed the burglary occurred during that time.

Officers said a large amount of other saddles and equipment were left behind by the burglars. The newest and most valuable saddle was taken.

School board officials stated the bond funds will be used to build a new 500-student Junior High School at Burley; a new 18-classroom elementary school at Burley; 19 additional rooms at the Burley Senior High School; a nine-classroom elementary school at Declo; additional three classrooms at Raft River High School; and a library facility to Declo High School.

A three-to-four mill increase over 1968 property taxes will cover the need for the $2.5 million school bond, school board officials stated.

The school board members unanimously agreed that the school bond funds are urgently needed.

"The need for school facilities throughout our district is crucial," school board members depends on a successful bond election for the needed facilities," school board members and the welfare of our children stated.

Bears Develop Taste For Signs In Forest Areas

SALMON—Bears have taken a liking to Forest Service signs on the North Fork District of the Salmon Forest.

The damage resulting from the bears chewing on the signs has been increasing the past several years.

Ron Averill, district ranger, said the animals are "playing hob with our sign program."

Damage generally is confined to the smaller trail signs in the north end of the district.

Whether it's the pressure of civilization, the low calcium-low cholesterol diet provided by wood cellulose or loss of the berries to the berry pickers that is attracting the bears to the signs isn't known.

Research at Spears Chiropractic Hospital has opened the door to health for thousands of sufferers who have been led to believe there was no relief. Because of these excellent results, thousands of "hopeless" and discouraged people who knew little about this hospital or chiropractic have found new hope and relief from Arthritis and Rheumatoid and many other types of diseases.

WORLD FAMOUS SPEARS HOSPITAL

Arthritis is seldom fatal, but it is America's number one crippler. Its actions and symptoms make it one of the most painful and crippling of all diseases. Because about 50% of our patients react so after having been given up or declared incurable elsewhere, naturally some of them arrive too late for complete relief, but the great majority go home well and happy.

Brazilian Girl Living With Cassia Family

SPRINGDALE—Myriam Gatti, American Field Service exchange student from Grande D. Sul, Brazil, is adjusting to her home here with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Matthews and a daughter, Susan, Springdale.

Because of a mixup in mail when arrangements were being completed, Miss Gatti, who is a senior at Burley High School, arrived here late. She had only two weeks notice before leaving her home in Brazil to fly to New York City, then travel by bus to Minneapolis and by plane to Salt Lake City where the Matthews met her.

The pretty blue-eyed student reads and speaks and writes not only English and Portuguese, national language of Brazil, but also is fluent in Spanish and French. The foreign exchange student will celebrate her 18th birthday anniversary Sept. 28. Miss Gatti says everyone is friendly at Burley High School and she is willing to try all new foods.

The Matthews have one son who is serving a mission for the LDS church, one daughter at Ricks College and another married daughter in California.

Susan Matthews and the exchange students are enjoying their new relationship as "sisters." Miss Gatti says her one desire is to be able to express herself in English as well as she can in the other languages.

Election Reform May Be Enacted For '68 Voting

WASHINGTON (AP) — House supporters of an election reform bill which won unanimous Senate support say they can get it enacted in time to apply to the 1968 elections.

The Senate voted 87 to 0 for the bill Tuesday and sent it to the House, where similar legislation has been rejected in recent years.

The bill would require candidates to disclose completely campaign gifts and spending in federal elections. If applied to the '68 campaign, it could provide the fullest accounting ever made of spending in presidential and congressional elections.

It limits to $5,000 the amount one person may contribute to one candidate in one year.

Although approving most of the reforms recommended by President Johnson, the Senate defeated, 40 to 42, an amendment by Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., to require that members of Congress disclose their incomes, assets and liabilities.

Among those voting for Clark's proposal was Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., censured by the Senate earlier this year for alleged financial misconduct.

Although rejected, Clark's proposal received more support than was expected. The Dodd case was considered a major factor in the support. Rep. Robert T. Ashmore, D-Cal., and Charles E. Goodell, D-N.Y., have mounted a bipartisan drive to win approval of the measure in the House Administration Committee. They vowed today to get the bill through the House.

The legislation as it cleared the Senate largely carries out the recommendations on revision of the Corrupt Practices Act urged by President Johnson in a special message to Congress in May.

Major provisions of the bill would: —Bring under the law for the first time primaries, political conventions, presidential preference primaries, fund-raising events and intrastate committees which are not now covered.

—Require a candidate and any committee working for him, so long as $1,000 or more is spent in a year, to file detailed reports on contributions and expenditures as many as 10 times in an election year, far more than now provided. —Provide for much more detailed listings than under present law. For example, the full name and mailing address of each contributor of $100 or more committee, $25,000 for a Senate election, $10,000 for a House election.

such contributors often cannot be identified. —Remove these present out-of-state limits on contributions of $3 million for a national election, $1 million for a Senate election, $500,000 for a House election.

Player's Association Agrees To Drop Charges Filed Against Finley

By BEN GLAN
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Major League Baseball Player's Association agreed Tuesday after two days of meetings with Commissioner William D. Eckert to drop the unfair labor practices charges it has filed against Charles O. Finley, owner of the Kansas City Athletics.

Homer Sparks Tigers Past Baltimore

DETROIT (AP) — Al Kaline's two-run homer in the sixth inning sparked Detroit to a come-back 4-4 victory over Baltimore Tuesday night.

Kaline's homer, his 22nd, was hit off loser Eddie Watt, 2-5, and came with Don Wert, who had singled, on first.

The victory, Detroit's 14th in 17 games with the world-champions this season, left the three place Tigers one game behind Boston and Minnesota.

The Tigers overcame deficits of 3-0 and 4-2 to win behind relief pitcher Fred Gladding, 5-4, the fourth of five Detroit pitchers.

Gladding left the game at the top of the eighth because of a muscle strain in his hip. Fred Lerner finished up.

Detroit tied the score 4-4 in the fifth on Bill Freeman's bases loaded single. The Tigers loaded the bases off starter Gene Brubaker on a disputed infield single by Jerry Lunde and walks by Jim Northrup and Norm Cash. After two were out, Watt took over and was greeted by Freeman's single.

Indians Take Two From White Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — Bob Allen's clutch relief pitching in the first game, and Jim Fregosi's four-hitter in the nightcap left the Cleveland Indians to a 4-3, 7-1 doubleheader sweep over Chicago Tuesday night, seriously dimming the White Sox American League pennant hopes.

The double setback left the fourth-place White Sox, who have lost three in a row, three games behind league leaders Minnesota and Boston with 16 games remaining.

Allen struck out nine batters Tom McCraw and Wayne Causey in the eighth inning of the opener stranding runners on second and third after the Sox had closed in on a run-scoring single by Pete Ward. Orlando Pena then wrapped up the victory for Sam McDowell.

aided over two days of unprecedented meetings in San Francisco to end the feud between the A's and their owner before it reached the National Labor Relations Board.

The parties met for 12 hours Monday and eight more Tuesday before emerging with a settlement.

In a prepared statement, Commissioner Eckert said that the Player's Association, represented by its director, Marvin Miller, had agreed to withdraw the charges after Finley agreed that he would not interfere with the rights of his players to air any grievances they might have in an orderly manner.

The statement also said that the parties agreed to resolve any future disputes "by mutual discussion rather than by resorting to the news media."

Finley became embroiled with his players after suspending pitcher Lew Krause on Aug. 18 for an alleged incident on an airplane.

After that, in rapid order, Manager Alvin Dark was fired, pitcher Jack Aker, the A's player representative, was fined, and outfielder-first baseman Ken Harrelson was released. Harrelson, who had criticized Finley for firing Dark, was later signed by Boston.

Lonborg Lifts Red Sox Over Athletics 3-1

BOSTON (AP) — Pitcher Jim Lonborg socked a tie breaking triple in the eighth inning Tuesday night and became the second 20-game winner in the majors as the Boston Red Sox trimmed Kansas City 3-1 and regained a share of the American League lead.

The Red Sox' sixth victory in their "last seven" starts, sent them into a flat-footed tie for first place with the Minnesota Twins, who lost to Washington 5-4. The third place Detroit Tigers, who beat Baltimore 6-4, trail the leaders by one game.

"Catfish" Hunter in the eighth after the Kansas City right-hander held them to three hits over the first seven innings.

After Hunter fanned Reggie Smith for his 12th strikeout of the game—tying the club record—Mike Ryan singled to center. The A's, expecting Lonborg to hunt, drew their defense in, but the Red Sox' ace crossed them up by lacing the first pitch up the right center field alley, scoring pinch runner Jose Tartabull to break a 1-1 tie.

The Astros tied it in the eighth when Staub tripled and scored on a passed ball on the third strike to Doug Rader.

Yankees Split Twin Bill With Angels

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees split a twin bill with the Los Angeles Angels Tuesday night.

Roger Repoz in the 12th inning, Clyde Wright, who allowed only three hits in losing the nightcap due to Peterson, walked Horace Clarke and Mickey Mantle around White's base single to fill the bases in the first inning.

Joe Pepitone struck out, but Clarke scored and White took third when the third strike got past catcher Tom Egan. White then scored on Steve Whitaker's sacrifice fly.

In the first game, Jim Fregosi opened the 12th with a single, moved around to third on Hank Taylor's single and Tom Satriano's fly ball and tallied the winning run on Repoz' long fly to center.

Two Hurlers Give Cards 6-0 Triumph

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Bob Gibson back in top form after recovering from a broken leg, combined with Larry Jaster for a five-hitter Tuesday night in hurling the St. Louis Cardinals to a 6-0 victory over Philadelphia.

Gibson, gaining his second straight victory after being out of action since July 15 with a fractured right leg, stopped the Phillies on five hits before giving way to Jaster in the seventh.

The St. Louis ace had worked five innings in beating the New York Mets last week.

Roger Maris singled home a first-inning-run off loser Rick Wise.

Del Maxwell doubled home a run in the second, then keyed a four-run fourth with a run-scoring single. Gibson, 12-6, and Curt Flood also singled runs home in the fourth.

Accidents Involving Park Bears Are Usually Caused By Tourists Themselves

By BOB LEERIGHT
YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK, Wyo. (AP)—The big bear beside the road in Yellowstone National Park may have a blue ribbon in one ear, a pink ribbon in the other, and a black spot on his rump. He may look cuddly, adorable and fun-loving.
But he isn't. He's a wild animal—capable of chewing off a chunk of arm or taking a swipe at a face with his long, sharp claws.
But thousands of tourists each year ignore warnings and feed and tease the bears which line the park highways seeking handouts. And each year about 50 to 100 tourists wind up with bear claw scratches or bear teeth marks on their face and hands.
It's been several years since any tourist has been mauled sufficiently to require hospitalization; but just south of the park near Ashton, Idaho, a man was severely mauled last spring.
Two girls—employees—were attacked and killed by grizzly bears in Glacier National Park in Montana this summer. But Yellowstone rangers said that tourists still aren't heeding their constant warnings to stay away from the 400 to 450 black bears which roam the park.

Most of the damage incidents occurred at the campgrounds where bears scrounge for food left open by campers. If the food is left uncovered at night the bears go right through can- verible tops, car windows or tents to reach it.
Park rangers said most of the personal injuries occur along the park highways where bears beg for food and block traffic on the narrow two-lane roads. Tourists are given written warnings about the bears when they enter the park and it is a federal crime to feed them. But you can rarely drive through Yellowstone when traffic isn't backed up while motorists feed the bears cookies, crackers or Pop-Tarts while another member of the family tries to get pictures of the youngsters sitting astraddle one of the bears.
Despite warnings that the bears are wild, some tourists take the bait. The bear is being studied by the Colorado Cooperative Wildlife Research unit. The color of the ribbon in his right ear indicates the bear's age and the ribbon in the left ear indicates his migration habits can be studied.

Area People Are Named To Publication

Several Magic Valley residents have been selected to appear in the 1967 edition of Outstanding Civic Leaders in America, according to A. M. Haney, editor of the publication.
Mr. Haney, Chicago, said that the area people were nominated by the Chamber of Commerce, a civic organization or city official in their community. He said each of the civic leaders has made a significant contribution to their community and that the nominations for the national award were made on the basis of local requirements of each individual community.
Area leaders to be listed are Dale Patterson and Mrs. T. W. Hickey, both Twin Falls; John M. Barker, Robert A. Erkins and Kenneth Curtis, all Buhl; Clayton L. Stewart and Warren E. Jewell, both Ketchum; Wesley Fields, Corral; Mrs. Veronica Barron, Fairfield; Grant Patterson, Halley; Mrs. Josephine H. Ricketts, Jerome, and Mrs. Tolla M. Zierh, Rupert.

Wind Blows Weeds Off Desert To Shoshone

SHOSHONE—Members of the Chamber of Commerce have gone on record in favor of the community project to control the weed problem in the city. The action was taken in view of the recent winds and pileup of weeds in the town. The mus- week cleaning out the weeds! hard weed has caused considerable debris in the community. The past week, with some favorable wind, many as five acres of town was suggested and further study will be made in the matter with President Kenneth Blackburn meeting with William T. Mabbutt of the Bureau of Land Management regarding assistance that may be available through that office. The 30th annual conference of the North American Highway Association was announced for October 15-17 in Ely, Nev.

GOOD PLAY WINS TOUGH CONTRACT

East and West hold 22 high card points and nine spades to go. North and South hold only 18 high card points and eight hearts, but North and South can take a singleton and the king of diamonds is placed favorably for them so that a club the trick. Ad wanted to ruff a spade or two in dummy but had no way to get to her hand to do that. So she played a club from dummy at trick two. She did not lead out dummy's ace of spades first because she wanted to keep that ace there for awhile in case the defense continued to lead trumps.

They did all right. East hoped up with the ace of clubs and led a trump to his partner's ace. A third trump led left Ad in diamonds, making sure to win the last diamond in dummy. After that she led a fourth club. East held that trick with the jack but that was the third and last trick for his side because he had to lead a spade to dummy's ace and the last club had been established for the 10th trick.

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South Pass 3 A Pass 7

What do you do? You have just enough to take this aggressive action.

ELE AND WALT DULANEY

We Won't Mourn The Lost Hurrah

Apparently rah rah is losing its magic at many campuses around the country. In the past three weeks we've received dozens of variations on the same complaint: there's no school spirit!

"No one supports the team except the cheerleaders, the band, the coaches' wives, and the players' steady's." "By 10 p.m. half the dancers leave." "There weren't enough boys for tea to fill one barrel for the senior class drive." "The school paper is optional this year, and it looks like we won't have enough subscriptions to publish!" And on, and on, and on!

The old cry of "Come on, gang, let's show everyone the sophomores are number one!" is dying, and with it has gone the thrust from many class to council projects.

We're not at this change! It merely reflects changing times. Once school activities filled a void. Now there are many alternative ways to spend leisure time. Special interest groups, hobby classes, organized community sports and social clubs, complete with part-time jobs and a dazzling array of commercial entertainment possibilities.

School pressures has increased tremendously. Books are carried home in towering stacks as the pressure builds to get into the "right" college.

NOT GOOD ENOUGH

"Yesterday" is not good enough for today. The activities need more than tradition as their rationale for being. A surf meet or car rally may be more meaningful now than a homecoming Weekend, especially since the alumni seldom bother to return any more.

With every passing day the gap between campus and the "real world" narrows. Students are involved in the issues of the day and the need of the community. Often this outside experience makes them bored with the "cuteness" of campus projects and the student-run student council three afternoons a week as part of the "y" helping hand project is not likely to be too excited at the opportunity to work eight hours twisting paper flowers for Prom decorations.

The very definition of "junior spirit" is changing. A junior whose opinion we value explained: "Sports, social functions and extra-curricular aspects of the school are a supplement to the main course, which is education. I show my school pride (as well as my personal ambition) by going all out on studying. When I do well on the national tests, I bring honor to the school. You don't have to sit through 2 1/2 hours of November rain to show your dedication. There are other ways."

As hinted earlier, we applaud the new campus attitudes toward school spirit. We didn't like the "old" old days when you were the flunk of the world if you didn't go absolutely hysterical over Big John's touchdown or foam at the mouth at the sight of the soap suds dumped in the school fountain by those dirty cross-section winners!

The new freedom to shop cafeteria-style among the various offices and community activities offers a far greater chance for each student to be himself, rather than being no different from any other person on campus.

When numbers are needed, a new challenge is to establish cooperative events with other schools? If you need 250 people to break even on a that counts, but rather how good a time was had by those in attendance.

Officers need to evaluate each event and ask themselves: why are we holding this event? What "today" values are there in it? What better project might we put in its place? Do we need any project at all? Each year's calendar should be hammered out only after intensive questioning.

There's no school spirit? Think again, complainers! Students need no longer sheep. There is a choice now to participate, or to sit out. We're glad the option exists.

Give a think of working on your own during the summer? For some helpful hints, write to Ele and Walt's Teenage Date-Line. In care of this newspaper, for a copy of their pamphlet "Be Your Own Boss" enclosing a stamp and a self-addressed envelope.

BARBS

You have a keen sense of recollection in your identity, and tell the purpose of the one-time seen-everywhere hula hoop.

There's ONE drive-in we won't stop at again. They served us something that tasted like a stink sandwich.

It would seem that the nearest fruit drink in the vending machine ever came to an orange grove as its trip past a citrus farm in a chemical tank car.
